

Audits and Inspections	Related Policies:
This policy is for internal use only and does not enlarge an employee's civil liability in any way. The policy should not be construed as creating a higher duty of care, in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party civil claims against employees. A violation of this policy, if proven, can only form the basis of a complaint by this department for non-judicial administrative action in accordance with the laws governing employee discipline.
Applicable Arkansas Statutes:
CALEA Standard: 53.1; 53.2.1

- I. Purpose: Some police operations and tasks have a high risk, high liability potential. These police operations must be undertaken in a consistent, methodical manner in an attempt to undertake the necessary police operation/task, yet reduce the liability potential. This liability potential can be reduced when the department can document that the procedures in place were consistently followed. A police department must conduct formalized, regular audits and inspections of these high risk, high liability operations and tasks.

- II. Policy: It is the policy of this department to conduct audits and inspections of designated police operations and tasks on both a scheduled and unannounced frequency.

- III. Procedure: The following operations and tasks shall be audited and inspected by a person/unit designated by the Chief of Police. This person/unit shall be directly responsible to the Chief of Police. The person(s) conducting the audit/inspection shall use the formal checklist to ensure that all relevant areas of concentration are addressed in the audit/inspection. The ultimate purpose for these inspections is to ensure that the operation/task is being conducted consistent with department policy/procedure and the law. Scheduled inspections shall enlist and involve the personnel of the unit/function being inspected, unless there is an indication that this would inhibit the process of the audit/inspection. Unannounced audits/inspection shall be conducted at the direction of the Chief of Police.
